

Built on a string of islands, Stockholm was founded where Lake Mälaren's water meets the Baltic. 'Gamla Stan' (the Old Town) with its narrow cobbled streets is beautifully preserved. The City's two large pedestrian precincts offer a host of elegant shops and boutiques. Stockholm's striking City Hall is set on the edge of Lake Mälaren and the Royal Palace overlooks the harbour with its armada of sightseeing boats.

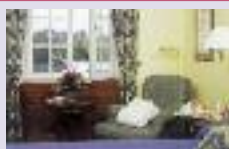

For an enchanting, sophisticated few days, Stockholm with its 24,000 island archipelago is a treasure of romance and beauty. Dine on fresh shell fish or scented reindeer in a vaulted restaurant in the 'Old Town'. Seen and be seen in the Opera Kafé. Take one of numerous boat trips out to the scattered islands of the archipelago. Visit Kungsträdgården with its cafés, patisseries and vibrant night life.

HOTEL ESPLANADE

Is a charming gem of a hotel occupying a listed building with a waterside location in the heart of Stockholm. All 32 rooms are individually decorated and have private wc and shower, radio, television, mini-bar and trouser press.

- Waterside location • Art nouveau style breakfast room • Intimate atmosphere

THE GRAND HOTEL

Baroque elegance overlooking the harbour, with 15 different room styles to choose from, although you may need to be an oligarch to stay in the ridiculously enormous 330 sq m Princess Lilian Suite. It's a class act with everything you'd expect from a genuinely 5 star hotel.

- Harbour side location • Veranda restaurant
- Cocktail Bar • 15 room/suite styles • Swish & Swanky

HOTEL GAMLA STAN

This charming hotel is located in the historical 'Gamla Stan' (old town) part of Stockholm. It is within walking distance of the Royal castle and other must see attractions.

The hotel was built in the 1650s and its style is of the period. It has a cosy feel and the hotel prides itself in having at least one historical item in each bedroom. Furthermore, the room facilities include; hair dryer; cable TV; telephone; mini-bar and hard-wood flooring.

As this hotel is located close to many restaurants the hotel only has a breakfast room, encouraging you to explore and experience the local and international cuisine available in the area.
