

Discover the wild, rugged beauty of Finnish Lapland's western fell country with unforgettable days of safaris by snowmobile and husky. Enjoy the informal hospitality of one of Lapland's oldest hotels set by the Muonionjoki that marks the border with Sweden and is also home to one of the largest group of huskies in Lapland.

Harriniva lies in the beautiful rolling fell land of Western Lapland where the hills and forests typify a Lapland untouched for 1,000 years. Here, alongside the border with Sweden, Maria and Kopi Pietikainen have offered hospitality for over 25 years to travellers, fishermen, skiers and adventurers as well as rearing Siberian Huskies. Your adventure includes safari opportunities through some of the world's most beautiful scenery in the midst of Lapland's mighty fells and forests.

HARRINIVA HOTEL

Family owned by Maria and Kopi Pietikainen, the hotel has 46 pine-clad rooms all with their own private WC/Shower. In addition there are 6 larger rooms with private saunas and 12 two floor apartment style rooms which can accommodate up to 6 people available on request. There is a restaurant, a bar and a wellness centre with sauna and outdoor hot tubs.
